New 5 County Championship Truck Pull a Big Success

October 5th, 2016 Simcoe-The results are in and it's been a real barn burner of a pull at the 5 County's Championship Truck Pull in Simcoe at the Norfolk County Fairgrounds yesterday. This is a new event for the Tuesday night on the track. 17 local trucks from the 5 neighbouring County's came ready to roar and take home their share of $5,000.00 in prize money! Here is the breakdown from the competition.

Gasoline Class

1st Kyle Meiszner retained his title for Norfolk County in the 4x4 Gasoline Class with a 298ft Pull for a $1,000 prize

2nd Kyle Wentzell held second place in this two truck class with a 293ft Pull to take home $500.

Diesel

1st Oxford County's Brian Crawford pulled a massive 321.8 ft taking home the $1,000 prize

2nd Kyle Whiting from Brant County $500

3rd Kyle Meiszner kept Norfolk in the top three with a prize of $400

4th Brian Koolmees put Burgessville in the money $300

5th William Koolmees from Brant $200

6th Matt Carmel from Brantford $100

Pull Chair, Kyle Woolley was excited about the number of competitors and even happier with the crowd that filled the stands at the Norfolk County Fair and Horse Show. "It exceeded our expectations and we think this is just the beginning of a great level of competition in pulling," said Woolley. Each Champion took home their prize money and a trophy to commemorate their win. The next pull event is this Sunday at the Norfolk County Fair and Horse show with the OTTPA "Grand Daddy" Tractor Pull in Simcoe.
